CLEOPATRA MASSAGE - /with seaweeds in the Turkish bath/ - Seaweeds are the first living organism of this world. They contain active substances such as vitamins, amino acids, phytohormones, minerals and salts. They reinforce the skin's protection mechanism through the active features of deep moisturizing. They restore the lost flexibility, tighten and fortify the natural texture of the body. They calm and tranquillize the skin. That's why the Cleopatra massage is one of the best ways to revive and to relax in the same time your body. For better effect we chose the good thermo-effect of the Turkish bath. After sweating inside, the seaweeds prepared with seawater and essential oils will be applied to your body by two therapists in the same time. Working in harmony they start to give you full body seaweed massage 45 min treating every muscle. There is a hair mask included. After you have finished you become a fresh drink while relaxing in a comfortable chaise longue and you get a short facial, hand and feet massage with cream. This procedure has a multi-purpose effect – a full body mask with anti-celluloid and nourishing effect, in the same time the sensation of four hands massage over your body brings you unforgettable pleasure

SULTAN MASSAGE - /with mud in the Turkish bath/ - The natural therapies like mud baths are one of the most ancient gifts from the nature. Once upon the time, when there were no medicaments, the mud baths were used to cure different diseases. People used it even to wash their hair and to clean the teeth. Mud contains minerals, sodium, natural antibiotics who help the skin be cleaned and detoxicated not only at the tissue-level, but also deep within the body. That's why we did for you a special Sultan massage done in the Turkish bath by two therapists with mud. While you sweat all the vitamins, calcium and minerals enter the skin. Here we have also a multi-purpose effect - mud has a peeling effect, it is good against celluloid, for acne treatments, if you want to loose kilograms and against hair fall with the hair mask included.
